

FCC Commissioners
The Federal Communications Commission RE: Docket 04-435
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear FCC Commissioners ,

I am writing to voice my concerns about the FCC's proposal to relax the restrictions on the use of cell phones on airplanes in flight.

There should there be no cell phone usage in the air on the plane causing disturbances to other passengers trying to remain calm or relax themselves. I don't enjoy having to listen to other peoples' conversations in any public arena. Frankly, I regret that cell phones were ever invented. I believe people use them needlessly and for lame excuses to phone somebody. Cell phone usage is accident prone while in use in cars and should be limited to emergency use only. I only use my cell phone for emergencies and if I make a general call, I least have the common sense to pull over and talk privately and not put anyone (including myself) in danger.

Please leave the current rules in effect.

Sincerely,

Bernice Gipson
